

P.O. Drawer 140, 100 Central Circle
 Low Moor, VA 24457
 540-863-1800 540-863-1804 fax

DATE: November 16, 2015

INFORMATION ITEM

SUBJECT	2014 – 15 Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and American College Test (ACT) results
RATIONALE	During the 2014 – 15 school year, Alleghany High School students exceeded the national average on the Math Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT). The nation-wide average score was 498, while the average score for all Alleghany High School students was 499. The state average score was 513. In Reading, the average score for Alleghany High School students was 486, close to the national average score of 489. The state average score for Reading was 515. Alleghany High School students' average Writing score was 457 as compared to the national average score of 475 and the state average of score of 513 Thirty-one Alleghany High School students took the American College Test (ACT) and posted gains from the previous year. The average score for Alleghany High School students in English was 21.4 as compared to 22.8 state-wide average. In mathematics, the average score for Alleghany High School students was 21.8 as compared to 22.8 for the state average. In reading, Alleghany High School students' average was 22.8 while the state average was 23.6. In science the average for Alleghany High School students was 21.8 and for the state was 22.8. The composite score was 22.0 for Alleghany High School students and 23.1 for the state.
ESTIMATED COSTS	N/A
BUDGET CATEGORY	N/A
LEGAL REFERENCE	N/A
STAFF CONTACTS	Mary Jane Mutispaugh and Jan Hobbs
SUPERINTENDENT'S RECOMMENDATION	N/A